

---

Our fight is not against flesh and blood

Cast:

Narrator, 2 people to represent the Branches, 2 people to represent the world, 3 or 4 people to be the wall

Props:

Signs for wall to hold saying, 'Sin', 'hurt', 'Powers' and 'Principalities'

Story:

The cast should act out their relevant instructions. Insert the name of your church for XXXX. The wall holds its cards with the words to their chests until the instruction to turn them round.

Once upon a time well around now actually in a land not too far away. Very, very close actually there was a Christian Fellowship who had been spending some time thinking about how they were getting along with God.

The fellowship was called XXXX Point to selves say that's us.

The Christians of XXXX had a lovely time together, praising God wave arms and singing songs get them to sing hosanna or something. They were very happy because they knew that Jesus was their friend.

The people of the world Point to selves say that's us just got on with their lives, eating action and drinking action and being as merry as they could laughing hysterically because tomorrow, they may die.

The Christians of XXXX felt sorry violins for the people of the world because they knew that they didn't know about Jesus and the good time they could have with him, and they didn't know that they would not get into heaven when they died. They made up their minds to go and tell them all about Jesus and they arranged to go out of their building, to where they thought they would meet the people of the world. They started to walk towards the people of the world walk forward.

However, they had not gone very far when they came up against a great big wall. bang gently into wall. The wall was thick, wall make stupid faces the wall was dirty, wall brush selves down, the wall was very, very ugly wall pull faces.

The Christians of XXXX could see the people of the world just on the other side of the wall. They were still eating action and drinking action and being as merry as they could laughing hysterically because tomorrow, they may die. The people of the world, walked about action and every now and again they bumped into the wall action but they didn't seem to notice.

The Christians of XXXX tried to shout to the people of the world over the wall.
Shout

But the people of the world didn't hear them, they just carried on eating action and drinking action and being as merry as they could laughing hysterically because tomorrow, they may die.

The Christians of XXXX tried to throw letters over the wall pretend, but none of them reached the other side. What could they do? shrug shoulders Then they looked a little closer at the wall peer at wall. They saw that it was made up of lots of different kinds of bricks, and the bricks had names wall turn cards around. The wall seemed to have a life all of its own and be poking fun at the Christians of XXXX wall blow raspberries. The Christians of the Branches realised that the wall was made up of all the sin and spiritual forces and powers and principalities that kept the people of the world from being able to see Jesus.

And suddenly they knew what to do. The Christians of XXXX began to pray, hands together pray and the more they prayed the wobblier the wall got. Wall begins to wobble. So they prayed and prayed and prayed until finally the wall fell down guess what? Wall fall down!

The people of the world suddenly noticed the Christians of XXXX look amazed and gasp and the Christians of the Branches were able to go and give the people of the world a great bug hug and tell them about Jesus. hugs all round